

Brayton C of E Primary School
Headteacher's Log
1972
Miss Procter - Headteacher

July 3rd

Mrs Innis, clerical assistant, was absent today as her daughter was ill.

July 6th

Parents of children due to start with us in September were invited in to school this evening at 7.30 for a short talk, the attendance was good.

July 8th –

Brayton Summer Fair – Our school won 2nd prize in the class for three roses.

July 10th

The fire officer visited today and inspected the building.

July 11th

The children who start with us in September visited school today and stayed for assembly. Miss Hewitt, who commences teaching in September, also attended for the day.

July 17th

A manager's meeting was held this evening at school.

July 18th

We had our annual sport's day this afternoon and were favoured with excellent weather.

July 24th

This morning, Classes 2 and 2 went to visit Brayton Junior School to look at their new classrooms and meet new teachers.

July 27th

This morning a member of the Selby Rotary Club joined us for our morning service, along with the Vicar. During the service they presented us with an inscribed pewter vase to mark the centenary occasion.

July 28th

Term ended today. Mrs Pratt and Miss Greaves left the school today.