

Brayton C of E Primary School
Headteacher's Log
1972
Miss Procter - Headteacher

March 2nd

The boiler was switched off mid-morning as it was not working correctly. Mrs Smith, Mrs Lockhead and Mrs Williams visited the regional library in Sherburn to change their library books.

March 3rd

Remaining teachers visited the library to exchange their books.

A National Coal Board Official visited school to give advice on how the boiler should be working – the coal that had been delivered was inferior in quality.

March 6th

A manager's meeting was held this evening.

March 15th

Mr Lucas, HMI, visited the school today. He joined us for assembly and spent the rest of the morning looking around classrooms.

March 16th

A meeting was held this evening for the parents of children due to start at Easter.

March 20th

Mrs Greaves was absent today – Mrs Harwanko took her class in the morning and I took the class this afternoon.

March 21st

Mrs Greaves returned today.

The children who start school after Easter spent part of the morning in school and stayed for assembly.

March 23rd

MRs Pratt today tendered her resignation, to take effect from 31st August – she is to retire from teaching. A coffee evening was held at school - £14 was raised for school funds.

March 28th

Interviews were held today for two vacancies commencing in the autumn term – Mrs Bastey was appointed to the staff and the other appointment will be determined later.

March 29th

School closed this afternoon for the Easter holidays.